Topeka, Kan., Aug. 19.—(Special.)— At Olathe last week the State Board of Charities retained a Populist in position and there is war again. This board reappointed A. A. Stewart superintendent of the State Deaf and Dumb institution, located in that city. Mr. Stewart is a Populist, having been ointed a year ago in the place of J. R. Carter, who was removed by Governor Lewelling on the charge of in-

The action taken by the board in retaining Stewart is the cause of intense indignation among the Republicans of Johnson county. They censure the board in the strongest terms and say that Stewart must go. The Repub-lican organization will meet this week and pass resolutions demanding Mr. Stewart's removal, as well as a number of Populist teachers who were also The following officers, members of A committee composed of President Jameson of Leavenworth, and Messrs. York, Wells and Duncan of Salina, all of the Kansas Real Estate asso-ciation, were in Topeka one day last week in conference with officials of the week in conterence whith cincians of the Santa Fe railroad over the project to boom Kansas by sending east a train-load of her products the coming fall. The railroad officials profess to be much taken with the idea and will co-operate with the real estate asso-ciation in preparing and forwarding the exhibit.

ciation in preparing and forwarding the exhibit.

It is proposed that the train shall start from Kansas about October 1, going to Chicago with occasional stops at several of the larger towns in Illinois. In Chicago a stay of several days will be made and the train will then proceed east. Two routes are proposed out of Chicago—one through Indiana on the Fort Wayne road, through the thickly settled portions of Ohio and the mining districts of Pennsylvania to Pittsburg, thence through Harrisburg to Philadelphia, and on to New York; the other from Chicago to Toledo; thence along the Lake Shore through the Empire state to New York city. It is expected that about twenty-five days will be consumed in this family down for a two weeks' outing. They were very fond of aquatic sports and spent most of their time boating and fishing.

Hudson, the skipper, protested to Mr. Storr sgainst the party crow ling into his small boat, which could only carry comfortably four persons. Stor answered: "Oh, there is no danger. The water its shallow; we are close to the shore, and the wind is light."

The meeting at Salina is expected to be one of the largest ever held in the state. Invitations to make addresses have been extended to Governor Morrill, ex-Senator Ingalls, J. Ralph Burton, Marsh Murdock and Major J. K. Hudson.

The two criminal libel suits brought against J. K. Hudson, editor of the Topoka Capital, by C. G. Foster. United States district judge for the district of Kansas, have both been set for the September term of court—the one in Topoka and the other in Atchison. The impossibility of both suits going on at once is obvious, and it is altogether likely that the Topoka suit will be post-poned until after the Atchison suit has been tried. Lieutenant Governor Troutiman, who will appear as atterinty for Major Hudson, went to Atchison last week in the interest of the major, and while there announced to County Atterney Walker that both he and his client were anxious to have the case disposed of at the earliest possible moment. The line of defense has not been idle. He learned the plans of the young couple and communicated with Mary's failer, who is a prominer revealed by Lieutenant Governor Troutiman, but it is not generally believed that an attempt will be made to prove that Judge Poster actually packed a jury in the federal court, as charged by Major Hudson in the Capital, The first defense made will be that the utterances complained of are not actionable. Judge Poster declines to be interviewed further than to say that the matter is now in the hands of the prosecution, as is their lawful daty.

The position of register of the United States land office at Topeka to which J. S. Richardson, chalirman of the Democratic state central committee, has just been appointed, pays the princely salarly of 345 per month. Mr. Richardson, has spent the greater part of this summer in Washington, presumably on the hunt of an office, and his friends here are highly industant that the administration should treat him so shabbily. "If a state chairmanship isn't good for more than a $50 place," remarked a prominent Topeka Democrat yesterday, but the court room Faddis begged his wife to go home with nim, but she delared she loved her father best, and returned to this city with hun last might.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 19.-The Populist leaders who are opposed to the nomina-tion of a candidate for chief justice of the supreme court are laboring with Judge Webb of Topeka with the hope of Judge Webb of Topeka with the hope of inducing him to pull out of the race. Webb, however, is not inclined to quit. With the Republican party torn up by factional strife, he thinks that he would stand a pretty good show of election. But the Populist leaders, that is the state central committeemen, do not want to make a campaign this fall he cause they deem it unwise to make a cause they deem it unwise to make a test of party strength before 1896. Their test of party strength before 1896. Their scheme is to make no nomination for chief justice, and "tet the people elect David Martin as a non-partisan judge," as one patriot put it. Judge Webb is the only obstacle in the way, and it is understood that he has promised to give the committee an answer by next

Palmer, Mass., Aug. 19.-The people of Thorndyke have been much excited today over what they have looked upon as a miracle. The excitement has not been confined to Thorndyke, but has extended to Three Rivers. Bondsville and Palmer. The news of the supposed miracle was first circulated yesterday morning by the janitor of the Catholic church. He reports that upon one of the doors in the church has mysteriously appear-ed a representation of the sacred heart. He could not describe very accurately how the heart had been reproduced upon the door, but was sure it had not been painted or carved.

At first the story was not credited, but a few people were allowed to see the heart, and their reports confirmed that of the janitor.

Yesterday the feast of the Assumption was celebrated in the church, and on account of the day, unusual importance was attached to the strange formation upon the door.

An examination of the coal revealed the same substance in a considerable quantity, and it was said to be a sort of oil which excludes from the coal. This it is supposed has worked through the wooden door gathering upon the outside. Just how to account for the peculiar Safer Than Lightning Rods.

Each day adds some new virtues to the long list of those already credited to the pneumatic. The latest of these is that the wheels of a bicycle being encircled by a band of India rubber and dry air-which is a perfect insulator the rider is completely insulated from the earth, and, consequently, is impervious to the attacks of the electrie fluid. Thus, day by day it becomes more and more a fact that life without a pneumatic tire is neither safe nor worth having. As the chances of a man on a bicycle being struck by lightning have been carefully calculated to be about one in a billion, says the Wheel, there will, of course, be some pessimists who will deny that this newly discovered virtue of the pneumatic as a lightning insulator amounts

QUEER FREIGHT FOR CHINA. The Skeletons of Dead Chinese Shipped in Boxes Marked "Fish Bone"

A curious freight which is shipped exclusively from San Francisco to China is "fish-bone," which pays twenty dollars a ton. It is sent in large boxes consigned to the Tung Wah hospital at Hong Kong, but the contents of the boxes are really the bodies of dead Chinamen sent home for burial. Most of the Chinamen who come to the United States, says the Chicago Record. are under the care of the Six Companies, who sign a contract guaranteeing to return the bones of the dead for burial with their ancestors in the celestial empire, and the Tung Wah hospital acts as the agent on this side in carrying out the agreement. They are shipped as "fish bones" in order to evade the rule of the steamship companies, who charge full first-class passenger rates for the dead.

Nearly every ship leaving San Francisco for China carries among the steer-age passengers a number of invalida who hope to live until they reach their native country, but several usually die on every voyage. There is an agreement between the steamships and the Six Companies which forbids the burial of these bodies at sea, and the latter of these codies at sea, and the latter furnishes coffins of the peculiar Chinese pattern for use in such emergencies. They are made of slabs, the first cut written.

SETTING THE DAY.

The Woolng of Her as It Will | He to the Years to Come. "You look tired, dear." The man who had given up his life to the young girl who so solicitously questioned him, gazed down tenderly into the eyes uplifted so searchingly "I am a trifle tired, myldarling," he said. "Our cooking class was a little longer than usual this afternoon, and it has told upon me." "Yes, dear," she replied sympathets feally. "I have heard mother tell how wearing they were to her, and I can understand in a measure how irksome they must be. Is this all you have been doing to-day?" "Oh, no!" he oried. "This morning ! attended a most absorbing lecture or the care of the household, the first of a series that are to be given this season.

It was so helpful." "I can imagine so," she replied, softa "Although a subject that has never claimed my serious thought, I can appreciate just how inspiring talks of this sort must be to one so ambitious

"Indeed, yes, and that is not all," he exclaimed, enthusiastically. "I am looking up the subject of home decor ation, and it is wonderful what a vast field it is. They asked me if I would prepare a paper on the use and abuse of tidies," he added, modestly, "but b haven't enough confidence in myself." "Oh, why don't you?" she cried. am sure you could do it, dear, and all these things will be such a help in your future life. You are a dear, good boy, and you try so hard to please me." With an exclamation of delight, her future life companion, the look of weariness on his face giving place to one of the greatest hopefulness, drew her swiftly to his arms. "Do you think so?" he said. "Ah, my dearest, how I have toiled to hear you may those words—the first words of praise for me that have ever fallen from your lips, and now that you have spoken, tell me when can I claim my reward and call you my own?" estisfaction and complanency in her face as she replied: "I think, James, dear, if you keep on in the way that you have begun, that in three or four years you will be fitted to take upon yourself the duties of a husband "-Brooklyn Life.
